

Santo Wines KISSIRIS

Appellation: Protected Geographical Indication (PGI) Cyclades

Type: White Dry Wine - Rose Dry Wine - Red Dry Wine

Varieties: 100% local varieties

“Kissiris” is another term for pumice, the characteristic volcanic rock of our island.

White: Assyrtiko, Athiri and Aidani white grapes from lowland vineyards, produce a mouthwatering wine with fruity aromas and vivid acidity that matches perfectly with seafood and light appetizers.

Rose: The blend of the white grape variety Assyrtiko and the red Mandilaria, produces this bright rose wine, with fruity aromas and a refreshing mouthfeel. Enjoy it chilled, with salads and various Mediterranean dishes.

Red: The blend of Mandilaria and other red grapes from our vineyard, produces a wine with deep ruby color and firm tannins. It accompanies perfectly red meat dishes and full-flavored cheese.

Closure: Stelvin (screw cap). Available at the following formats: 750ml, 375ml, 187ml
